Altar Servers

If you are interested in becoming an altar server please register in the sacristy after Mass or through the parish office.

Children who have made their First Communion are welcome to join this ministry. Altar server meetings and training sessions will begin in the coming weeks.

PARISH NURSING

If you or your loved ones are unable to attend Church, the Parish Nurse or a member of the Pastoral Visiting Team can bring Communion to you at your home or in hospital. Call the Parish Nurse at 905-432-2300 x. 202 to make arrangements.

If you are admitted to hospital, please make sure your parish affiliation is noted.

Please pray for the deceased, especially Lucille La France, Martin Tessier and Carla Mottile for those who mourn for them.

Please pray for those who are sick and those who love and minister to them...

DAILY MASS READINGS

Parishioners throughout the Archdiocese of Toronto can now find the Canadian daily readings on their archdiocesan and parish websites. Working with our publishing partners at Living with Christ/Novalis, the Archdiocese of Toronto has been able to include this new feature on the www.archtoronto.org website and all parish websites within the archdiocesan website network. There are currently 159 parishes in the network. Securing access to these online readings for the day – including the First Reading, Second Reading (when appropriate), Psalm and Gospel Reading – is significant because the vast majority of daily readings found online are from the United States Lectionary. There are some key differences between the American and Canadian Lectionaries in translations, the arrangements of some readings and feast days, as well as some differences in the instructions for readers. By partnering with Living in Christ, we are ensuring website visitors will find the same readings they would hear in their local parish Mass. The Daily Readings tab can be found under the Our Catholic Faith drop-down menu on the archdiocesan and parish websites within the archtoronto.org network.

Lectio Divina—Live Streamed to our Parish from the Cathedral with Cardinal Collins

Lectio Divina is not a catechesis or teaching but it is a prayer, a divine reading, a personal encounter with God in Sacred Scripture. The evening begins with Cardinal Collins presiding over Evening Prayer at St. Michael's Cathedral. Lectio Divina follows immediately afterwards. In each session, Cardinal Collins slowly reads an excerpt from Scripture, offers a short reflection, and invites us to quietly meditate on the passage. Lectio Divina is not intended to increase our intellectual knowledge of the Bible [though it also has that effect]; instead, it is intended to draw us closer to God, and to transform our attitudes and behaviour.

The wisdom tradition of the Bible is a treasure, divinely inspired and humanly insightful, that can guide us on our way. Please join us this Sunday, February 3 at 6:30pm in the parish hall at St. Joseph the Worker for a free community dinner. before Lectio Divina begins. No registration required. The event is free and all are welcome.

Baptism of the Lord

PASTOR'S CORNER

In today's liturgy, Jesus experiences a river-baptism and God's voice is heard proclaiming Jesus to be the Beloved Son of God with the visible presence of the Holy Spirit bearing witness. This gospel recounts the final event we celebrate in the Christmas season. The Christmas season looks beyond the baby in Bethlehem. Each feast peels back the layers a little further, each revealing the truth of Jesus of Nazareth from a different perspective. Jesus is the One in whom God keeps the promises made through Isaiah. He will show to the world the glory, justice, power and abundant love of God.

Through Baptism into Christ, we share in His life in God and in His promise-keeping mission in the world. By our Baptism we can lay claim to that divine declaration:

"You are My Son, the Beloved: with You, I am well pleased."

FORMED[®]

*The Formed feature for this month is: Symbolon:
Knowing the Faith*

Too often we try to live a faith we don't know or understand. Some of us stumble along with it, going through the motions. Others simply walk away. That's why the time is right for Symbolon: Knowing the Faith. Presented by the most trusted and compelling teachers and filmed around the world with stunning cinematography, Symbolon: Knowing the Faith explains the essentials of the Catholic Faith in a way that will inform our minds and inspire our hearts. Presented in ten sessions that are ideal for parish catechism, family instruction, and personal devotion.
