Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

FAMILY CORNER

In today's gospel, the people of Nazareth refused to renounce their possessive attitude toward Jesus. He was bitterly criticized because He demonstrated great openness of heart, particularly towards people on the peripheries of society. The Gospel story shows how difficult it is to attain a universal vision.

When we face someone like Jesus, someone with a generous heart, a wide vision and a great spirit, our reactions are often filled with jealousy, selfishness and meanness of spirit.

Jesus was called to break the boundaries and take God's message of salvation to unexpected people and unexpected places. Through our Baptism, we are called to be prophets for the Kingdom of God. We will encounter many reactions from those to whom we are sent, not all of them positive. Unswerving dedication, bold courage and deep biblical hope must be our trademarks.

Father Thomas Roscia, CSB

FORMED®

The Formed feature for this month is: Symbolon: Knowing the Faith

Too often we try to live a faith we don't know or understand. Some of us stumble along with it, going through the motions. Others simply walk away. That's why the time is right for Symbolon: Knowing the Faith. Presented by the most trusted and compelling teachers and filmed around the world with stunning cinematography, Symbolon: Knowing the Faith explains the essentials of the Catholic Faith in a way that will inform our minds and inspire our hearts. Presented in ten sessions that are ideal for parish catechism, family instruction, and personal devotion.
