Third Sunday Of Easter

God lovingly pursues us, calling us far beyond our own safety zones to share the good news of salvation. We see this clearly in the life of the apostle, Peter.

He was chosen for discipleship by Jesus but he had a hard time. When Jesus was brought before the high priest, Peter was so afraid that he denied three times that he was Christ's disciple. After he saw Jesus' empty tomb, he went home and locked all the doors. When it looked like a great adventure with Jesus was a miserable failure, he went back to what he knew: his fishing boat.

However, the promise of Easter was genuine. Jesus really did rise from the dead. He met Simon Peter on his own territory when he was fishing and called him again. Call and response were unmistakable. Three times Jesus asks "Do you love Me?" Peter answers "Yes", "Yes" and "Yes I do, and I already told You I did."

Jesus tells Peter to take care of the flock, prepare for difficult times and "Follow Me." Peter did that. So today all around the world, we are still responding to God's call, still daring to take risks in service to the proclamation of God's unending love. We are compelled to share the good news of Jesus Christ, risen from the dead. Alleluia!
