FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME July 7, 2019

Living the Gospel by supporting those who suffer from anxiety Kristen is a college student whose mother recently died. The sense of loss led to crippling anxiety, which made it hard for her to eat, sleep or study. She decided to attend a free walk-in counselling clinic offered by Catholic Family Services of Simcoe County, a ShareLife-funded agency. She found the session helpful, so she agreed to attend several more. With her clinician's help, Kristen learned what triggered her panic attacks and developed a plan to battle her anxiety. She now has the tools, resources, and support she needs to manage her day-to-day life.

Please make a sacrificial gift to ShareLife through your parish or sharelife.org before July 31.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE

Catholic Women's League (CWL) meetings are held the 2nd Monday of each month at 7:00pm in the Parish Hall. There are no meetings held during the month of July and August. For more information: cwl.sjtwoshawa@gmail.com.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The 70 Disciples demonstrate courage and strength when Jesus appoints and sends them on their first mission. It will be a difficult task. In our time, they would be asked to carry no wallet, no knapsack and certainly no cellphone. They are being sent “like lambs into the midst of wolves.” Upon entering any house, they are to offer God’s gift of peace and to trust in God and in people’s hospitality.

They are to trust this new way of life where love accepts generously the gifts of others and ministers to the sick. Yet when the disciples return, they rejoice. Why? Perhaps they have come to experience and see that out of so little so much is being given.

Jesus knows the suffering of God’s people is great. He knows our needs require his love and mercy to heal a suffering world. Jesus calls us to discipleship to be his body, his hands, his heart to care, to listen and to love in a way that serves and reveals the kingdom of God. We are asked to trust in this new way of being: giving ourselves to Jesus’ love when we respond to the need of others. We have a choice: will we be voiceless bystanders in our world or trusting, rejoicing bearers of the mercy and love of God?
