"Live the Gospel" on ShareLife Sunday

Today is our third ShareLife collection. We encourage you to give during this weekend's special collection. You can also donate online via the parish website <https://stjosephtheworkeros.archtoronto.org/> or at sharelife.org. By doing so, you'll be making a real difference in the lives of poor and marginalized members of our community.

Monthly Pre-Authorized Giving (PAG) is a convenient way to spread your ShareLife contribution throughout the year. Simply submit a void cheque in a ShareLife envelope to the parish office or drop it in the offertory basket. Contact ShareLife at slife@archtoronto.org or 416-934-3411 if you have any questions about pre-authorized giving.

Today is ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously during the special collection or anytime at sharelife.org.

Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

From the beginning of creation . . . (Mark 10:6)

"Is it lawful?" some Pharisees quizzed Jesus, hoping to trip him up (Mark 10:2). Everyone knew Moses had allowed divorce; it was fairly commonplace in Jewish society at the time. But Jesus didn't take their bait. Instead, he redirected them to the Garden of Eden, to a time before Moses, a time before sin entered the world. "From the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. . . . And the two shall become one flesh" (Mark 10:6, 8; see Genesis 1:27). By focusing on what was lawful, these Pharisees were asking the wrong question. The real question was What did God have in mind?

It's natural to think small and want specifics: what's allowed and what isn't, who's right and who's wrong. But Jesus wanted his opponents to think bigger, to see God's huge, glorious plan—and he wants to do the same thing for us. God's intention for marriage is so much greater than doing right and avoiding wrong.

It's about creative, faithful, self-giving love. It's about God knitting together a man and woman who are both in need of grace. It's about reflecting the image of God: revealing his perfect love through the everyday, imperfect love of a husband and wife. And it's a beautiful window into the loving, faithful relationship that God desires to have with every one of his children.

Jesus wants to lift our eyes to the greatness of God's plan from the beginning. Our experiences of family love will fall short of this ideal because we are all sinners. But our families can still be beautiful and glorify God. Even troubled marriages and fractured families can still be windows into God's love. As through stained glass, God's love can still shine through us and point toward the one who made us. Because "all things are possible for God" (Mark 10:27).

"Jesus, teach me to love."
