TOTUS TUUS-The celebrated Catholic camp program, Totus Tuus (meaning totally yours) is coming to our parish this Summer! It is an excellent Catholic camp program, exciting and full of activities to help the young ones grow in their faith as well as enjoy the summer. It will run from the 3rd to the 8th of July 2022.

The day camp, for grades 1-6, helps children learn more about the Catholic faith in a caring, fun-filled environment. It is facilitated by highly trained, college-age Totus Tuus missionaries with support from our local Parish Coordinator, Conchita D'Souza. It runs from Monday to Friday, 8:45am – 2:30pm.

The evening program is designed for students (grades 7-12) who are seeking to deepen their faith and grow in their personal relationship with Jesus. It is facilitated by highly trained, college-age Totus Tuus missionaries, with support from our Parish Coordinator. Please pick up a registration package at the parish and return it to the parish office once completed.

Please pray for the deceased especially and for those who mourn for them.

Please pray for those who are sick and those who love and minister to them.....

Fifth Sunday of Easter

They . . . reported what God had done with them. (Acts 14:27)

What's the first thing that comes into your mind when you hear the word "evangelization"? Most likely, it's not an eager anticipation to go traveling far and wide as Paul and Barnabas did. Most likely, you would not savor the prospect of undergoing the "many hardships" that these two apostles experienced as they went from town to town proclaiming the good news (Acts 14:22). Most likely, you would think, "I can't do that!"

Most likely, you'd be wrong. Because for all of Paul and Barnabas' heroics and sufferings, their effectiveness came from "what God had done with them," not from their own natural abilities (Acts 14:27). Their success in one town and failure in another didn't depend on their public speaking skills or their theological knowledge. They knew that the only thing they had to share was the story of Jesus and their experience of his salvation. They left everything else to the Holy Spirit because they knew that only he could change people's hearts.

The same is true for you. Your call to become a "missionary disciple" is nothing more—and nothing less—than the call to share about your relationship with the Lord. You don't have to convince anyone. You don't have to explain all of Scripture or defend every Church teaching. In some cases, you don't even have to say anything! The witness of your life may be all that's necessary to spark in someone a greater desire to seek out the Lord for themselves.

The key is not what you say, but what God does with what you say. It's not about the forcefulness of your presentation; it's about the power of the Spirit to touch someone's heart. And that's not something you can control. The only thing you can do is speak from the heart and leave the results to the Lord.

So don't let the thought of evangelization slow you down. You have a unique story to share. Just share it!

"Come, Holy Spirit, and work through me!"
