The day camp, for grades 1-6, helps children learn more about the Catholic faith in a caring, fun-filled environment. It is facilitated by highly trained, college-age Totus Tuus missionaries with support from our local Parish Coordinator, Conchita D'Souza. It runs from Monday to Friday, 8:45am – 2:30pm.

Sixth Sunday of Easter

... the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. (Revelation 21:10)

Radiant heavenly cities. Countless angels and saints worshipping. Mysterious scrolls and the occasional bizarre "living creature" (Revelation 4:8, 9). We've been reading from the Book of Revelation every Sunday since Easter. Some of its images are inspirational while others might leave us scratching our heads. And that's okay. Because as apocalyptic literature, Revelation is not meant to be interpreted literally; its symbolism is meant to give us a vision of God's plan coming to fulfillment.

For example, in today's reading, "the holy city Jerusalem" descends from heaven (Revelation 21:10). Gleaming like a jewel, it is protected by a high wall with twelve gates bearing the names of the tribes of Israel, and twelve foundation stones bearing the names of the apostles. God himself is its Temple and its light.

Using images like these, John is giving us a sense of the glory that we'll experience in heaven. But he's also showing us the Church, the bride of Christ that we are part of even today (see Revelation 21:9). Redeemed by Jesus, this Church is beautiful. It is holy, set apart for God. It is built on the foundation of the apostles and God's chosen people. And as we gather as his Church, we become that radiant bride, shining with the brightness of his love. It's glorious!

The truth is, we're not fully there. At least not yet. But let John's images lift your heart and fill you with hope. Let them inspire both gratitude and intercession in you. Gratitude for God's promise of heavenly glory. And intercession that this promise will be fulfilled in your own life and in the lives of all your brothers and sisters in Christ.
