The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

This is my body that is for you. (1 Corinthians 11:24)

Have you ever seen a carpet of flowers? Throughout the world, people celebrate the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ with Eucharistic processions that take place on streets covered with intricate, ornate “carpets” of flower petals. These carpets recreate religious artwork or depict holy symbols or designs. Children often follow the procession, joyfully dancing and throwing the flower petals into the air!

Joy seems to be a central message of today’s feast. It’s a day to rejoice in the very real presence of Jesus with us. We rejoice in Jesus, who inaugurated a new covenant between God and his creation by offering himself on the cross. We affirm that covenant each time we eat his Body and drink his Blood in the Eucharist (1 Corinthians 11:23-26). And we celebrate God’s faithful love for us.

We rejoice that Jesus is with us in the Blessed Sacrament: Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity. He has not left us orphans; he is close to us in every tabernacle in the world. So we lift our hearts in praise and thanks.

We rejoice that Jesus provides for all of our needs. He feeds our deepest hungers for peace, or healing, or closeness to God. When he multiplied the loaves and fish, he gave us just a glimpse into the fulfillment we can experience when he feeds us his own divine life in Holy Communion (Luke 9:16-17). As we receive him, we celebrate the unending life he offers us.

Today is a day to reflect on Jesus, minister of the new covenant in his blood. It’s a day to ponder the mystery of his presence with us under the appearance of bread and wine. But don’t forget about the flowers. Take some time to rejoice and praise Jesus!

“Lord Jesus, I give you praise and thanks that you are with us in the Blessed Sacrament!”

CHILDREN’S LITURGY- Please have your children join us for Children's Liturgy of the Word at the 9:00 am Mass. Father Victor will call the children up to join the procession out to the hall following the welcome. The children's liturgy is a developmentally appropriate programme that allows the children to listen and respond to the same gospel as their parents will be hearing in the church.
