"It is Jesus who uses us to be His hands, His heart and His voice to serve and love His people"

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Trouble was brewing among the believers in Galatia. Many of them, influenced by outsiders, began to believe that Gentiles had to observe the whole Jewish law if they wanted to follow Jesus. They were turning away from Paul's teaching that faith, baptism, and the gift of the Spirit were the only requirements for entry into the body of Christ.

In response, Paul wrote a passionate letter. He gave voice to his heartbreak and grief over the way these brothers and sisters had begun to turn against each other—and against the gospel he had proclaimed to them.

Paul saw that the Galatians' acceptance of a false gospel was bringing about real-world results. Dissension, rivalry, selfishness, and envy were cropping up in place of the peace, the joy, and the love they had once known (Galatians 5:20-22). It had become so bad that Paul warned them that they risked "devouring one another" (5:15). All because they had stopped living by the Spirit, the One who unites God's people in love and humility (3:3-4).

This passage tells us something extremely important: the Holy Spirit matters! He is more than a sentence in our Creed and more than the Person we name when we touch our shoulders in the Sign of the Cross. He is the love of God poured into our hearts (Romans 5:5). He is the voice of God who convinces us that we are children of God (Galatians 4:6). He is the power of God who softens our hearts and teaches us to love one another (5:13).

So follow Paul's advice and "beware" (Galatians 5:15). Don't fall into the trap of trying to live out your faith without the help and grace of the Holy Spirit. Invite the Spirit to be with you as you worship at Mass today. Listen for his voice throughout the day. Follow his promptings. Let him teach you how to live in love with the people around you.

"Holy Spirit, come and fill me!"
