Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Who appointed me as your judge? (Luke 12:14)

Who wouldn't want to have Jesus on their side in a property dispute? Think of it: the Son of God himself advocating for you to receive as much as possible. Your opponent wouldn't stand a chance!

But then again, judging by today's Gospel, Jesus may be the exact person you don't want to consult. At least not if you're trying to maximize your takeaway. Remember, this is the One who said, "Blessed are you who are poor," and who told a wealthy man to sell all his possessions and give the money to the needy (Luke 6:20; 18:18-23). You might prefer that he stay out of the whole thing. It's just as well anyway, since Jesus didn't seem too interested in engaging in the argument between these two brothers!

Jesus may have seemed disinterested in this man's complaint, but that doesn't mean he didn't care about this fellow. Jesus loved him and his brother just as deeply as he loved Peter or John or anyone else. What he cared about was whether this man would show that same love to his own brother. He cared about whether he would learn to be detached from his possessions so that he could discover the even greater treasure of sharing in his love. That's why he warned the man against greed; he could see that it was motivating him far more than love was.

Jesus ended his parable by urging his hearers to become "rich in what matters to God" (Luke 12:21). And what matters to God is not how much or how little we possess, but how much or how little we are possessed by our possessions. What matters to God is the degree to which we are free to dedicate our money, our time, and our abilities to loving and caring for one another.

Jesus isn't against wealth or possessions. He just values them less than he values our love—and our ability to love one another. That's what truly matters to him.

"Jesus, help me to become rich in what matters to you."

THE ROSARY APOSTOLATE IN THE SCHOOLS

- has been faithfully visiting our classrooms once a month to pray the Rosary with our students for the past 7 years. They are a great inspiration to our students! They are seeking people who have great love for the Rosary and are willing to visit our schools to pray the Rosary with the children once a month for a total of 8 days a year. Training, screening and material will be provided. If you are interested, please contact:
