Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Take the lowest place. (Luke 14:10)

A wise man once said that humility isn't thinking less of yourself; it's thinking of yourself less. That's what both Sirach and Jesus tell us in today's readings. Humility helps us take the spotlight off ourselves. And when we stop putting ourselves first, we become more open to the people around us.

That's what makes humility a key to healthy relationships. It helps us in two ways: we see people differently, and they see us differently. In our first reading, Sirach noticed this link (see 3:17-18). That's why he counseled his son to conduct his affairs with humility. Humble people are better able to see the needs, desires, and struggles of the people around them. Not only that, but there's something attractive about a person who doesn't put himself first. It makes people want to try to connect with them.

Jesus said something similar in his parable about taking the lowest place at a banquet. As we take our attention off what we think we deserve or what we think will make us look good, we stop trying to claim recognition for ourselves. That makes us better able to treat other people with respect and honor. And that opens us to the love that God wants to flow between us.

Perhaps you are tempted to think that a humble person is someone who lets other people walk all over them. And who wants to be like that? The truth is, true humility requires great strength. Choosing to put other people ahead of yourself goes against a lot of ingrained habits and self-interest. But it will make you free to love the people around you. And you'll find that this kind of love opens up a curious dynamic: the more you give it away, the more it comes back to you.

"Jesus, help me be humble as you were. I want to be free to choose the lowest place."

DONATING SECURITIES TO THE ARCHDIOCESE OF TORONTO

One of the most financially sound ways to support the Archdiocese of Toronto is with the gift of securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds). When you donate securities to a registered charity, you pay no capital gains tax and receive a tax receipt for the full amount of the gift. It means a great tax break for you and an increased support of various archdiocesan charities such as your parish, ShareLife, St. Augustine's Seminary, The Shepherds' Trust, Office for Refugees and many others.

For further information, contact the Development Office at 416-934-3400 Ext. 519/561 or send an email to development@archtoronto.org.
