SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

'We Urgently Need Your Help' The volume of calls for help for food assistance from our Neighbours in Need has exponentially increased, prompting us to appeal to you to seriously consider volunteering with our Conference here at St. Joseph's.

We support our Neighbours through your most generous donations, with food & clothing vouchers, & new beds, on an ongoing basis. We help families to access the 'Canada Learning Bond' so that their children will have an opportunity for Post-Secondary Education.

Your gift of 'time' approximately 2 to 4 hours a month will definitely help us implement new programs of assistance for our neighbours giving us the ongoing privilege of visiting them in their home, speaking with them on the phone, directing them to appropriate agencies, or just listening.

Our Conference meets monthly on Zoom and In Person and we invite you to 'Come and see'!!

We encourage you to speak to the Vincentians who hold up the 'The Poor Box' after weekend Masses, email Marian at: ma.brady7@gmail.com or call our SSVdPaul phone #:365 688 6551 to see how you can help us assist those who face so many challenges.

As Vincentians we strive .. "To See the Face of Christ in the poor and to Serve with Love, Respect, Justice and Joy"

The Resurrection of The Lord

Dear Parishioners of St Joseph the Worker,

Alleluia, Christ is Risen! Truly He has Risen. Today we celebrate with Joy the resurrection of Our Lord. On this Easter Morning, the women who witnessed our Lord's crucifixion on the cross came to the tomb to pay respects to the body of our crucified Lord. What they encountered in the tomb was not a lifeless body; but a tomb that is empty. Likewise, the apostles who also looked into that empty tomb, turned this tragedy of the Cross into great joy and rejoicing at the encounter of Christ himself, who has defeated death and risen to new life. Today Christ makes all things new again and blesses each one of us too with that joy of new life with our risen Lord. This very joy today we experience at the resurrection of Jesus, is a joy that our very lives as Christians as Christ himself gives us new life in him. So today is a day we recall that very new life that we had first received at baptism and the promise of eternal life. As we take time to pause and reflect with our family and friends today, and throughout this Easter season on that empty tomb and on the Resurrection, we can draw hope and comfort knowing that sin and death has no permanent grip onto us. Our risen Lord illuminates the areas of fear, doubt, and darkness of our life. Allow the light of Jesus who has Risen from the dead to new life, radiate in new life that Christ has given us.

I would like to wish each one of you and your families a very Happy Easter. Christ is Risen!

Fr. David Twaddle
