Are you looking for a life-changing experience by helping the less fortunate? I have arranged 12 open spots for missionaries to volunteer at the Missionaries of the Poor mission in Kingston, Jamaica. The mission was started in 1981 by The Very Reverend Fr. Ho Lung. This mission in Kingston, Jamaica consists of seven mission homes for destitute persons, including abandoned sick, disabled, or dying men, women, infants, and children. When you return home from this mission trip you will truly understand how God has blessed your life. The cost of attending this life-changing trip is your return airfare to Kingston (via WestJet) and also a $200.00 donation to the mission to help cover the costs of your meals.
