Easter Sunday– The Resurrection of the Lord

Dear Parishioners of St. Joseph the Worker,

Christ is Risen! Truly He has Risen. Today we joyfully celebrate the resurrection of our Lord. On the first Easter, the women made their way to the tomb to pay their respects to the Lord, whom they had witnessed being crucified on the Cross just a few days before. To their astonishment, the tomb was empty. The apostles witnessed that same empty tomb and rejoiced that their Lord and Saviour was now alive and would live forevermore. Today we participate in that same joy. Christ has made all things new and passed this new life onto us. We are made a new creation in Christ and share in the joy he brought to the world. We were given this new life in baptism, it was strengthened in confirmation, and it is nourished in the Holy Eucharist. As Christians, we share in Christ's life here on earth and have the promise of sharing eternal joy with him in the life to come. I invite all of you to take time this Easter to reflect with your family and friends on the empty tomb and on the Resurrection. From these we draw an immense source of hope and consolation, knowing that Jesus has defeated sin and death. This Easter, I encourage you to invite him into your lives so that he can bring peace, hope and healing. Allow the light of Jesus, our Risen Saviour, to illumine the darkness and shine his love into your life.

Wishing you and your families a very Happy Easter. Christ is Risen!

Fr. David Twaddle
